SAN FRANCISCO PLANS FOR THE NATIONAL CONFERENCE

San Francisco looks upon the June meeting of the Conference as an "All-Western" conference with San Francisco serving in the capacity of hostess city. The states of Oregon, Washington, Nevada, Arizona, Colorado and New Mexico are being asked to join with California in stimulating interest in the Conference. The San Francisco Committee on Arrangements for the National Conference of Social Work is actively at work doing its best to establish a record in the matter of local arrangements for the comfort and pleasure of the delegates.
Headquarters are maintained at the Exposition Auditorium, Civic Center, San Francisco. The personnel and functions of the committee are as follows:

Headquarters—Major A. Kranz

Hotels—R. O. Hanson

An advisory or citizens committee has been formed, consisting of fifty-nine representative leaders who, by reason of their standing in the community and state, will assure public support and interest.

The council is headed by Ray Lyman Wilbur, now secretary of the Interior. Governor C. C. Young, and Mayor James Rolph, Jr., are honorary chairmen.

The Exposition Auditorium, Grove and Larkin Streets, Civic Center, San Francisco, will be official headquarters of the Conference. Registration, Information, Luncheon and Dinner tickets, Consultation Booths and Exhibits, will be handled there. Evening sessions will be held in the main auditorium, while the other halls in the building will be used for Division and Kindred Group meetings. The High School of Commerce, State Building, Public Library and City Hall will house such meetings as cannot be accommodated in the Exposition Auditorium.

The St. Francis Hotel has been selected as hotel headquarters for the National Conference.

Hotel reservations should be made immediately through Raymond O.

Ray Lyman Wilbur, of Washington, secretary of the Interior, who is chairman of the Advisory Council to the San Francisco Committee of the National Conference of Social Work.
He will speak on "Pacific Relations" on Thursday, June 27th, at the evening general session.

Hanson, Chairman, Hotels and Housing Committee, 704 Market Street, San Francisco. The hotels listed on page 22 have agreed to hold a specified number of rooms for the use of Conference delegates at guaranteed rates. Delegates are urged to make their hotel reservations as promptly as possible. The Hotels and Housing Committee reports that eastern reservations are coming in very rapidly, and that both the St. Francis and the Fairmont Hotel are filled to capacity.
There are many good hotels in the neighborhood of headquarters hotel.
Write immediately to Mr. Hanson indicating the rate you wish to pay, when you will arrive, and the type of room you want.

All railroads are offering tourist rates, which are cheaper than the usual conference rates. This means that no railroad certificate will be needed in securing your ticket. However, it is necessary for you to plan your whole trip, in order to avail yourself of the cheaper round-trip price. Make your reservation now, and remember that you will have to pay for the round-trip ticket at the beginning of your trip.

If you are having difficulty trying to arrange side trips in connection with your trip to the Conference, or if you want any help in planning your vacation after the meetings, write to Mrs. Max Stern, chairman of the Transportation and Vacation Committee. The Committee is leaving no stone unturned in seeing that the Conference members know about the vacation possibilities of California and the West Coast. She will be glad to help you.

HOW TO GET THE MOST OUT OF THE CONFERENCE

By

Alexander Johnson

("Uncle Alec", as he is known to most social workers gives here a few suggestions which are based on his experiences as former secretary and president of the Conference. He has been practicing what he preaches here for about forty-five years, and his advice should be of particular value to those who are going to the Conference for the first time this year.)

It costs a lot of money and takes some time, so by all means let's get all there is in it for us. Here are a few hints for San Francisco.

First—before hand. Think out ahead, weeks or months ahead, at any rate as soon as you decide to go; some special problems you would like some light on. Perhaps a difficult family case; or a question of office management; or a trying problem-child case; or the managing of a fussy Board member; or how to work the Budget Committee of the Community Fund; or how to make every co-operator in the Confidential Exchange keep up to date with his reports. Make a list of all the points. Then when you get the circular about the Consultation Service fill the blank and send it to the Conference office in plenty of time, as requested.

Next, if you can, ride on the Survey Special or with the Boston chapter party. Two or three days together with congenial souls, will get your heart and mind in fine shape for the Conference and besides you'll be sure to make some choice new friends. But anyway be on hand for the opening meeting and stay till the gavel falls for the last time.

Then get your program and study it. Read every page and heed all the notices, and mark the meetings you want to attend. It looks complicated, but it is not, it's merely full. Don't be discouraged at so many meetings. You can not possibly be at more than one third of them. If anyone springs the old chestnut about a three ring circus, give him a superior smile. When you go to a dinner at a fine hotel you don't worry because you can not devour the whole menu. Choose the ones you want and don't grumble because you find two or three on the same day and hour. Remember all choice involves sacrifice. When we take one thing we deny ourselves some other. But be sure to make your choice the day before, don't do it in a hurry. Don't go to bed until you have outlined tomorrow's activity.

And don't forget that attending the Conference is one of the hardest jobs in the world—if you do it in the right way. So remember to take some exercise by walking from your hotel to the meeting places. In San Francisco this will give you plenty of exercise. And don't think that the Conference has to be a very serious business for you all the time. Go to the informal dances, the president's reception and the other entertainments. You'll find

THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE SAN FRANCISCO MEETING

PORTER R. LEE,

President, National Conference of Social Work

The practice of the National Conference of Social Work in changing its place of meeting each year has two outstanding advantages. It serves to dramatize for the local community in which it meets a certain kinship between its own social problems and its own responsible efforts to meet them and the problems and programs of other communities. The second advantage is that it offers many social workers their only opportunity to make the acquaintance of workers and agencies from other cities.

Personal acquaintance is the one experience which puts reality into the impressions we form of remote localities and those who live in them. Putting reality into such impressions is of peculiar importance to social workers. The agencies in most of the leading fields of social work are now associated in some form of national organization. They have in this way testified to the interdependence of the communities of the United States in their efforts to deal with social problems. It is probably true that the vitality of such organizations depends in considerable measure upon the opportunities for personal contact among their personnel. Distances in the United States are so great as to make personal contact difficult under ordinary circumstances. The National Conference, however, provides an annual occasion for accomplishing the purpose.

The meeting in San Francisco has a special significance from this point of view. The social development of the Pacific coast has been rapid and it has involved many interesting experiments with which workers in other parts of the country are familiar only by hearsay. There can be no doubt that the presence in San Francisco next June of a thousand or more social workers from other parts of the country will contribute to a greater degree of national solidarity in social work than any other single effort could achieve. A large registration at San Francisco will give a sense of reality to the impressions which other parts of the country have of social work on the Pacific coast and will go a long way towards giving the large body of Pacific coast social workers a consciousness of the national implications of our common efforts.

Periodicals, professional literature, reports and correspondence are indispensable in keeping us all acquainted but none of them compares in value with face to face contacts. The San Francisco meeting of the Conference will bring into live vital personal touch for a week the two remote seacoasts of North America and all the inland stretches which lie between.

some of your best experiences there talking to interesting people from all over the country.

Then pick out the folks you want to meet and meet them. Don't wait for the Secretary or President to introduce you. He can't introduce one thousandth of the people who would like, and ought, to meet. Every member of the Conference is ex officio acquainted with every other. You don't know all their names but that's no difference. You think you want some more experienced member to break the ice. But there isn't any ice unless it's in your own imagination. Perhaps the very one you want to meet is hoping some one will introduce him, or her; usually her, to you.

CONFERENCE CONSULTATION SERVICE ENLARGED

The Consultation Service of the Conference has been organized this year in a more definite and careful way than in the past. As a result resources are made available to those who attend the Conference which should be of great value in making their work more effective. Representatives of thirty-five organizations in the field of social work or allied fields will be on hand to hold conferences with people from all over the country who want to consult them on a comprehensive list of subjects ranging from problems in family case work, through problems encountered in disaster relief, social hygiene, mental hygiene, community chests, probation, to a list of topics on the interpretation of all types of social work, through publicity.

A leaflet entitled "What is Your Problem?" is ready for distribution from Conference headquarters to those who would like a copy. Included in it are the names of the organizations and their personnel, as well as a list of suggestive topics.

The Consultation Service does not claim to be a magic method by which all your troubles can be solved, but it can be of great help to you in giving you a chance to talk over any particularly difficult problem with a person who is well qualified to help you. Experience has shown that one of the greatest values to be derived from the Conference comes from the opportunities for discussing local problems with experts from all over the country.

Send for a copy of the leaflet. Check through some of your particular problems and pick out the ones on which you need help. Then state them briefly and definitely and send them in on the slip supplied in the leaflet, to the Conference office, Exposition Auditorium, Civic Center, San Francisco, to reach that office not later than Saturday, June 22nd. It will not be possible to make advance appointments for applications received after June 22nd.

Call at the desk of the General Consultant at Conference Headquarters, Thursday morning, June 27th, after 8:30, and you will be notified where to go for your appointment, the time, and the name of the individual. In order to avoid wasting time, do not fail to keep the appointment, promptly.

As General Consultant, Alexander Johnson, former president and secretary of the Conference, will be at his desk in general headquarters to give advice, especially to newcomers, on how to get the most out of the Conference, what persons to see on various problems, and which meetings to attend.

The Organizations participating in the Consultation Service are:

American Association for Organizing Family Social Work.

Paul U. Kellogg of New York, editor of "The Survey", who will address the general evening session of the Conference on Tuesday, July 2nd. Mr. Kellogg will speak on "Unemployment and Progress."

PROGRAM PLANS FOR SAN FRANCISCO PROMISE MUCH OF INTEREST

A program packed full of topics of great interest is printed in this issue of the Conference Bulletin, giving a hint of the material to be presented before the Conference at its general sessions and Division meetings, and before the Kindred Groups which meet during the period June 24th to July 3rd.

Meetings held by the American Social Hygiene Association, the National Probation Association and the Catholic Conference on Industrial Problems will mark the opening of the conference period, on June 24th. Other groups will start their meetings on the following days, and the official opening session of the Conference, with the presidential address will take place Wednesday evening, June 26th at 8:00 P. M.

Throughout the program, particularly in Division X, The Immigrant, and the program for the National Conference of International Institutes, there are topics dealing with various groups within our population. Mexican workers, second generation Americans of Oriental stock, the American Indians as they move toward industry, are some of the subjects to be discussed.

Because the Conference is meeting on the West Coast, many problems in which social workers from the countries bordering on the Pacific would be interested have been included on the program. Invitations were extended to social workers and others in China, Japan, Mexico, Hawaii and other countries, and already definite acceptances have come from quite a number.

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS OF THE CONFERENCE

The Executive Committee has approved the following proposed amendments to the By-Laws of the Conference for submission to vote of the Conference at the business session in San Francisco.

I. Creating New Program Committee.

At its meeting last October, the Executive Committee appointed a special committee to study the whole program building machinery of the Conference and make recommendations for its improvement. This Committee reported its recommendations to the Executive Committee at its meeting in January. The Executive Committee approved the recommendations of the special committee and instructed the General Secretary to prepare suitable amendments to carry the recommendations into effect if the amendments are approved by the Conference in San Francisco. The amendments were prepared and re-submitted to the Executive Committee who in turn have approved them in the form quoted below. They will come before the business session of the Conference on Saturday, June 29th for action.

It is proposed to amend Section 4 of the By-Laws entitled Appointment of Committees, by omitting (c) and adding at the end thereof the following:

"2. Program Committee.

"There shall be a Program Committee which shall consist of the President-elect, the retiring President, the General Secretary, and six members, two to be elected each year by the Executive Committee of the Conference, for terms of three years.

"The said Committee shall have the following functions:

"1. To receive suggestions from Conference members, various Division and Kindred Group Committees, social workers, social agencies, and others interested, for subjects or speakers for the National Conference program.

"2. To canvass the social work field continuously, to discover material that could be used advantageously on the Conference program.

"3. To determine from year to year, various major emphases for the program as a whole.

"4. To recommend to Division Committees subject matter or methods of presentation of subject matter for their meetings to be used at the discretion of the Division Committees.

"5. To arrange where desirable, more than a year in advance, for material to be prepared for the Conference program, either General Sessions or Divisions. Where such commitments are made for Division programs, such commitments are to be made only upon the request of the Division involved or with its hearty cooperation and consent, and for not more than two of the five meetings now allowed each Division.

"6. To arrange the schedule for joint session of Divisions.

"7. To have sole responsibility for the evening General Sessions programs.

"8. To establish such regulations as are needed from time to time for the control of the extent of the program as a whole.

"9. To provide adequate ways and means for active participation of Kindred Groups in the construction of the program as a whole.

"10. To execute such other functions as from time to time may be assigned to it by the Executive Committee or the Conference membership.

"11. To arrange, with the approval of the Executive Committee such consultations and other meetings as may be necessary to carry out its functions."

The purpose of this amendment is to provide strong central, continuous, leadership in program building for the Conference as a whole. It also makes possible a desirable amount of long range program planning and establishes needed machinery for more definite cooperation between Divisions and Kindred Groups for program building purposes. The proposed amendment in no way reduces the amount of responsibility which Divisions now have for their own program.

II. Organization Membership Voting Privilege.

At the Conference in Memphis, several questions arose concerning the right to cast a ballot for an organization member. In several instances, the Executive or another staff member appeared at the voting booth to cast the ballot of an organization membership and found that some other staff member had already cast it. Frequently, the Executive or staff member representing an organization member is the only representative of that organization present at the Conference. The representative is often a personal member of the Conference. Under our present regulations, if an individual in these circumstances casts the ballot he is personally entitled to, he can not cast the ballot of the organization and in the absence of another representative of the organization, the organization loses its vote. Or, if he casts the ballot of the organization, he loses the vote to which he is individually entitled. In order to overcome these two difficulties, the Executive Committee of the Conference presented the matter to a special committee consisting of Mr. Robert Kelso and the General Secretary with instructions to prepare an amendment to the By-Laws which would overcome the difficulty. The proposed amendment when prepared was submitted to the Executive Committee and has been approved by that Committee for presentation to the business session of the Conference in San Francisco for action.

"It is proposed to amend Section 8 of the By-Laws, entitled Business Session, by adding at the end thereof in a new paragraph the following:

"Any institutional member, and any institution which is a contributing member as defined in Article 1 of these By-Laws, may cast its vote at any annual meeting of the Conference, by the execution of a direction of proxy to any member of its board or staff who shall appear personally to cast the said ballot. The Executive Committee may establish such regulations for the execution of such proxies as it shall deem proper. No person so voting the ballot of an institutional member shall thereby lose any individual vote to which he may be entitled."

This amendment if adopted will provide for the designation of a definite person by the organization itself to cast its ballot at the Conference, and will not deprive that person of his personal right to vote if a member.

Action by the Conference on this amendment will also be taken at the business session on Saturday morning, June 29th at San Francisco.

These two proposed amendments are printed in this issue of the Bulletin so that all Conference members may have an opportunity to study them carefully before arriving at San Francisco. If any member has any question in regard to them, the General Secretary would be glad to try to answer it.

Mount Tamalpais—Guardian of the Bay Region

BEFORE AND AFTER THE CONFERENCE

(Suggestions from California)

The National Conference of Social Work is being held this year in the middle of a vast Vacation Land. Why not plan to make the conference also the occasion for your annual vacation? San Francisco is the starting point, where you may choose from a wide variety of lovely playgrounds, many of which are scenic and recreational spots famed all over the world.

If your time is short and confined to the duration of the conference you will find that there are many short trips which will enable you to see central California, its rivers, valleys, mountains and seaside resorts. Take a half day trip to Muir Woods and ride on the "crookedest railroad in the world" to the top of Mt. Tamalpais, or if you are a "hiker," take a day to the trip and walk up and down the mountain as most of the natives do. From Mt. Tamalpais you will see for a radius of one hundred miles the entire bay region, the Pacific Ocean and the great rivers that flow into the bay from the valley. At Muir Woods you will walk under the shade of giant redwoods which are among the most ancient trees in the world.

Or take a delightful boat ride from the Ferry Building to the vine-clad Napa Valley. From the boat, electric trains will bear you through idyllic towns, orchards and vineyards to the foot of Mt. Helena, on the side of which Stevenson recuperated and wrote his "Silverado Squatters." Calistoga is near there with its hot springs, geysers and petrified forests. (Transportation $3.50 round trip.)

Or perhaps you will care to visit the even more famous Valley of the Moon, where the ruins of Jack London's mansion overlook the scene whose beauty even the powerful pen of that novelist inadequately described. Out of the same valley you may go to the beautiful wooded Russian River country, where you may spend a week-end canoeing and swimming in brilliant sunshine.

Or you might take a night boat up the placid Sacramento River to spend the day at the State Capitol. Your trip will be full of quiet charm on the winding river that flows past rich fruit farms and little cities, each with its Chinatown reminiscent of the early days. At Sacramento you may visit Sutter's Fort, one of the first outposts of California's civilization, and the Capitol, whose wooded grounds contain rare trees and shrubbery from the four corners of the globe.

In a short half day you can cross San Francisco Bay and visit Berkeley, where is located the University of California, second largest university in America. In Oakland you may motor to the home of the poet Joaquin Miller, or to Mills College, or to Piedmont, "city of millionaires," that overlooks the bay from the rim of the eastern hills.

If your time is short you may take the motor stage down the peninsula to Palo Alto, home of beautiful Stanford University and Herbert Hoover. You will roll along a wide highway viewing the panorama of beautiful cities, suburban homes and rich estates flanked by distant hills on both sides, into the heart of the prune and apricot belt, the famed Santa Clara valley. If time permits you may visit San Jose and motor from there up to the top of Mt. Hamilton, there to see the equally famous observatory.

In a week-end trip you may easily visit central California's most attractive beach resorts at Santa Cruz, reached by a trip of never-ending surprising delights, or at Capitola. And then there is lovely Carmel-by-the-Sea near Monterey, the first capital of California. This part of the coast, with its white sands and blue and purple waters, almost defies description. If you are athletic, the famous golf courses at Del Monte and Pebble Beach will give you something to remember, in vistas of green fairways backed by azure ocean or cypress forests. If you seek less strenuous pleasures you make take the famed "17-Mile Drive" or browse through the shops and streets of Carmel's artist colony.

If your time permits of a few days off, or possibly a week for vacation, greater possibilities open before you. There is magnificent Lake Tahoe, a night's journey by train or a day's trip by stage. There at the crest of the Sierras lies a wondrous lake which is equalled in beauty only by those in the Canadian Rockies or Switzerland. (Round trip $13.25.)

AWARDS FOR OUTSTANDING PUBLICITY TO BE ANNOUNCED

When others are roistering around the Maypole, six intent little groups, in Chicago, New York, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Boston and Cleveland, will be sitting in their judicial robes about their mail. Occasion: the closing date of the half-dozen contests in publicity media, mothered as a whole by the Social Work Publicity Council (née Committee on Publicity Methods in Social Work), but each self-governed and self-financed by local groups in these cities. Annual reports, feature stories, news photographs, poster designs, radio talks, Sunday magazine articles will be put on the scales to be balanced by the effectiveness of their appeal to the interest and sympathy. Instead of a handkerchief over their eyes the distinguished judges are wearing at least two pairs of glasses in awarding first prizes of $25 and special citations. These awards will be announced at the National Conference of Social Work in San Francisco, and the prize winning material will be there on display not only for purposes of gloating by the winners but for everyone to mull over. Similar awards in social work publicity last year brought out a large crowd for the meeting at which announcements were made, a generous, enthusiastic crowd. This year's meeting, in the useful words, will be Bigger and Better. At a later meeting of this Kindred Group the two important awards in social work publicity to be made, one after September 15, 1929, the other after February 1, 1930, by the Harmon Foundation of New York will be discussed at length. This will give publicitors who long to compete in these liberal awards an opportunity to get further light on their aims and conditions in time to use the summer lull to good purposes. The Harmon Foundation and the cooperating Publicity Council are eager to have the finest material from all over the country submitted for these awards.

FUTURE MEETING PLACES

Several of the larger cities of the country are making plans to invite the National Conference of Social Work to hold its meetings with them, in 1930 and 1931.

According to the action taken by the Conference in Memphis the Time and Place Committee will recommend to the Conference at San Francisco, cities to entertain the Conference in the next two years.

The chairman of the committee is John F. Hall, Omaha Welfare Federation, 503 Hospe Building, Omaha, Nebraska. Invitations should be sent to him.

Detailed information concerning the requirements of the Conference may be obtained from the Conference office.

Miriam Van Waters, referee of the Los Angeles Juvenile Court, who will speak on "The New Morality and the Social Worker."

WHAT TO DO WHEN YOU GET TO SAN FRANCISCO

1. Register as soon as you possibly can. Registration begins at Conference Headquarters, Exposition Auditorium, Civic Center, at 1:00 p. m. on Tuesday, June 25th.
2. When you register, upon the payment of a registration fee of a quarter, you will receive an envelope containing your official program. Please discard the program which you have been using in your Bulletin.
3. If you are not a member, the most convenient time to join and pay your dues will be when you register. Regular dues, including the Bulletin and Proceedings are $5.00 a year.
4. If you are a member, and your membership fee is overdue, be sure to pay that fee when you register, so that you may vote later in the Conference.
5. According to the Constitution, no member may vote who is not in good standing at the time of voting and also in good standing at the time of the previous Conference. If you are in doubt as to whether or not you can vote, see Miss Winston at the Registration desk.
6. Use the Information Service at headquarters.

LOS ANGELES DAY

The Los Angeles Committee for the Conference is planning a day of hospitality during which it hopes to have a number of the Conference members as guests, on July 5th. Definite details will be announced at the Conference. Miss Dorothy E. Wysor, general secretary of the Travelers Aid, 220 Coulter Building, 213 South Broadway, Los Angeles, is making plans. Conference members who will return through Los Angeles should plan to accept this hospitality.

HOW TO GET THE MOST OUT OF THE CONFERENCE

Perhaps he thinks you are the older member. Just walk up to him, hold out your hand and say, "I'm Jones of Kalamazoo, Children's Work"; and he will say "I'm Smith of Oskaloosa, Family Welfare", and at once you are old friends. You were acquainted before, now you know each other's names. Just try it once and you'll never be at a loss for someone to talk to again.

Then for the real big folk, the headliners you are half afraid of, you think them too high and mighty. Well, they aren't; the bigger and wiser he is, the readier to share what he knows with you. But if you have the least timidity, just remember something he has said from the platform and say to him, "Mr. Lee you said something in your presidential address that I did not quite get" and he will be tickled to death to sit down and tell you all he knows. Every speech maker is delighted when people talk to him about his speech. I know because I have made so many myself.

Social work must be done socially and nowhere more so than at the Conference. Of all the crabbed, cracked creatures alive, the stiff, stuck-up, unsociable social worker is the most absurd. There are not many but once in a while one blows into the Conference, but he is in the wrong pew. They are rare and get rarer each year. Most of us are just folks and the finest are the humanest. Sometimes even they are timid or shy, and even waiting and hoping to be spoken to.

Any one who will take these hints will have a mighty good time and go home a better social worker for the week he has spent.

Anita Eldridge, executive secretary of the California Conference of Social Work, who is secretary-treasurer of the San Francisco Committee of the National Conference of Social Work.

READING LISTS

Reading lists will be available at Conference headquarters, which will give definite suggestions to those who wish to carry on their study and reading along lines developed at the sessions of the Conference Divisions.

Mrs. Bertha F. Hulseman, acting librarian of the Russell Sage Foundation, has prepared twelve lists, after giving some time and study to the program of the Conference. The lists give a number of titles of books forming the best material on the topics, and, in some cases, a brief resume or comment on the newest books. They will be distributed free.

COMPLETE YOUR PROCEEDINGS FILE

The supply of Proceedings on hand at the Conference office has been increased lately, and copies of the volumes for a number of years are available. The price of the books is one dollar a volume with the exception of that for 1927 which is $2.50. Postage charges are additional.

Copies are available for the years: 1878, 1881, 1883, 1888, 1890, 1891, 1892, 1893, 1895, 1897, and 1897 Special, 1898, 1899, 1900, 1901, 1902, 1903, 1904, 1905, 1907, 1908, 1912, 1921, 1922, 1923, 1925, 1926 and 1927. Orders will be filled in the order of their receipt. In several cases the office has only two or three copies, the years, 1893, 1895, 1907, 1908, and 1911 being included in this group.

FILL IN NOMINATIONS BLANK

Every member of the Conference is urged to fill in the blank included in the back of the Bulletin, and send suggestions for officers to the Committee on Nominations.

Space is provided for suggestions for first and second choice for president, and one choice for first vice-president, second vice-president, third vice-president and five members of the Executive Committee. The committee members will be chosen for a term of three years. The other nominations will be for a term of one year.

Mrs. Irene Farnham Conrad, 40 Neron Place, New Orleans, Louisiana, is chairman of the Committee on Nominations, and suggestions should be sent to her as soon as possible.

THE SURVEY '29 CLUB TRAIN

The train of the California '29 Club, sponsored by The Survey, will leave New York June 18, carrying in its group of social workers, at least two ex-presidents of the Conference, Owen R. Lovejoy of the New York Children's Aid Society and Alexander Johnson, also former secretary of the Conference. The train will reach San Francisco, June 24, in time for preliminary Kindred Group meetings.

The train will go over the Pennsylvania Railroad to Chicago, then by the Santa Fe. Stopovers planned include the Grand Canyon, Santa Fe, and several optional trips, such as the Yosemite National Park, and Southern California.

Tickets may be purchased from local railroad agents, at the regular summer tourist rates. The train will be made up only for the trip west. Reservations must be made immediately with John D. Kenderdine, Care The Survey, 112 East 19th Street, New York.

BOSTON CHAPTER PARTY

The feature of the trip taken by those who will go to the Conference in the special party fostered by the Boston Chapter of the American Association of Social Workers, will be four days spent in travel through Southern Utah and Arizona by automobile. The party will visit the Garden of the Gods near Colorado Springs, Bryce Canyon, the Grand Canyon, Zion National Park and Yosemite.

The trip is sponsored by Parker B. Field, 20 Ashburton Place, Boston. The train leaves Boston, Thursday, June 13, and the party will return on Sunday, July 14. It is possible to join the party at any point, and if time is limited, one may participate in one direction only, the round trip railway fare having been purchased.

The return trip will be made via Seattle, with several days in the Canadian Rockies.

J. C. Astredo, chief probation officer of the San Francisco Juvenile Court, who is chairman of the San Francisco Committee of the National Conference of Social Work.

THE REUNION DINNER

Hastings H. Hart, the senior ex-president of the Conference will be the toastmaster for the annual Reunion Dinner to be held on Friday evening, June 28. Alexander Johnson, former president and secretary of the Conference, is in charge of the dinner, and he has announced that he has received a good many acceptances.

Dr. Hart, "Uncle Alec", as he is known to the Conference, and Rev. Charles W. Wendte will be three who can claim to be '89ers as well as '29ers, since they were together at the last meeting in San Francisco, held in 1889. There will be others who have attended the Conference for many years who will be at the dinner, and be called on to give their reminiscences. The meeting is open to any one who wishes to go.

ANOTHER SPECIAL PARTY

A special party to leave Chicago on the "Gold Coast Limited" of the Chicago and North Western Railway, at 8:30 P. M., Saturday, June 22nd, is sponsored by Roy James Battis, superintendent of child welfare for the State of Illinois Department of Public Welfare. The party will reach San Francisco Tuesday, June 25th at 2:30 P. M. Round trip fare from Chicago will be $137.56, including lower berth. Write for further details to Mr. Battis, at City Hall Square Building, Chicago, Illinois.

SPECIAL TRIP PLANNED FOR SUNDAY OF CONFERENCE WEEK

The latest word from San Francisco is that on Sunday of the Conference, June the 30th, a trip has been arranged to Mount Tamalpais and the Muir Woods. You will have a chance to walk under the shade of giant redwoods which are among the most ancient trees of the world, and from the top of Mount Tamalpais which you will ascend on the "crookedest railroad in the world", you can see for a radius of one hundred miles the entire bay region, the Pacific Ocean and the great rivers that flow into the bay from the valley.

Other plans which have been formulated by the Entertainment Committee include the President's reception, informal dances, a sight-seeing tour of the city, and trips to Chinatown at night.

"Other more intimate things", writes Mrs. M. C. Sloss, the chairman of the committee, "are afoot to show California hospitality and the pleasure Californians have in welcoming the delegates of the Conference to San Francisco."

BEFORE AND AFTER THE CONFERENCE

And of course you will probably want to see Yosemite Valley. It's a day's auto stage ride from here, or a night's train ride. There is no need to attempt to describe its wonders here. (Round trip $17.00.)

If it's fishing and camping, riding, and the more strenuous outdoor relaxations that call you, there lie the vast Sierras to the eastward with their many hotels and resorts, their wooded trails, their cold, dashing trout streams and their surprising mountain meadows.

Or there are the less rugged and more easily attained forests of the Santa Cruz Mountains and the Redwood Empire. The former are but three or four hours away; the latter may be reached by stage or train in about seven hours.

And there is the fisherman's paradise, the Klamath, to the north, or Feather River to the northeast, the Bear, the Kawaia, the Kern, the San Joaquin, the Kings, and hundreds of smaller streams that in their upper reaches abound in trout.

For a fascinating auto trip full of romance and the history of early California, we suggest travel through the old Mother Lode country. In three days you may visit Dutch Flat, Gold Run, Sonora, Mariposa, Chinese Camp—in short, the Bret Harte country and the haunts of Mark Twain, the ghost towns where history was written in the "hell roarin' days of '49." (In connection with Yosemite trip if desired.)

But if by chance you cannot get a single day off for recreation, you will find San Francisco sufficient. Seven golf courses, Chinatown, Fisherman's Wharf, Golden Gate Park and the Cliff House, out-of-door swimming pools, art galleries,—these will stimulate and relax you. The city is yours—California is yours. Social workers who know the healing effects of play, of sunshine and of healthy exercise should take some of these things for themselves.

The vacation committee of the local conference will be glad to make available, upon inquiry, more specific information as to the cost and time involved in your vacation plans. Please make your requests fairly definite as to the type of vacation desired, that is, redwoods, seashore, high Sierras, etc., and give an idea of the length of your vacation time. Address Mrs. Max Stern, care of San Francisco Committee, N. C. S. W., Exposition Auditorium, San Francisco.
